THE LAST MEETING:

NEWBERRY, S.C. (Feb. 4, 2009) - Mars Hill won a big game on the road Wednesday night by defeating Newberry 74-66 at Eleazer Arena.

Mars Hill was led by 20 points from Danny Sanders (Shelby, N.C.) while P.J. Gore (North Myrtle Beach, S.C.) scored 14 and Stoney Polite (Morganton, N.C.) netted 13 off the bench. Newberry (16-5, 6-4 South Atlantic Conference) got 20 points from Clemente Martin (Freeport, Bahamas) and an 18-point, 10-rebound double-double from Brett Goodwell (Inglewood, Calif.). Newberry started the game off on a tear, scoring the first six points of the game and opening up an eight-point lead at 14-6 with 14:53 left in the half on a Grant Domsic (Winter Garden, Fla.) three-pointer. After a Sanders bucket, Domsic nailed another triple to push the lead to nine points. The Lions answered with a hot streak, narrowing the deficit to one point when Gore's three-point play made it 25-24 with 7:03 left in the half. Akeene Coakley (Mount Pleasant, S.C.) sank a jumper to give Mars Hill a one point lead with 6:40 in the half, but the Lions would not connect on another field goal attempt until the final seconds of the half. But the hosts struggled to put opportunities away as well, and could only extend their lead to three on a pair of late Wheeler free throws before Jamarl Glen (District Heights, Md.) netted a layup in the closing seconds to cut Newberry's halftime lead to 32-31. The teams were nearly equal in shooting percentage in the first half, but Newberry held a 24-16 rebounding advantage, including 10 offensive rebounds in the opening 20 minutes. Mars Hill scored a basket on the opening possession of the second half to take the lead back, but neither team could pull ahead by more than two scores until midway through the half. A 10-0 Lions run spanning roughly three minutes extended their lead from one point to 11 at the 11:03 mark. Sanders' jumper put MHC up 55-44 at that point, as the Lions scored five points off of turnovers and allowed Newberry to take only two shots in the surge. Newberry was able to cut the lead to four points after a 6-0 run was capped by a Martin triple, but Polite responded with a trifecta of his own on the next trip down the floor to put the Lions back up by seven with 6:48 to play. MHC scored the next six points to take a 13-point lead in the final two minutes, but Newberry's offensive woes were the story of the second half. From the 7:01 mark until the final minute of the game, Newberry was 0-for-5 from the field, 0-for-5 from the charity stripe and turned the ball over four times. By the time Martin ended the skid with a layup with 56 seconds to play, Newberry was down by 11 and a comeback effort was not feasible. Mars Hill (47.1%) outshot Newberry (42.1%) in the game and forced 25 turnovers. The Lions - who lead the nation in steals per game - was credited with 15 thefts in the game. Newberry was 12-of-26 (46.2%) from the charity stripe.

THE SERIES:

The series is tied, 24-24. Their first meeting was in 1967. MHC lost the contest, 115-86.

RECORDS:

Mars Hill enters the contest 17-9 overall and 7-8 in the SAC. L-R is 16-9 overall and 11-4 in the SAC.

OTHER NOTES OF INTEREST:

HICKORY, N.C. (Feb. 28, 2009) - The Lenoir-Rhyne University Mens Basketball Team (17-9, 12-4) closed out the regular season with an 87-76 victory over Mars Hill College (17-10, 7-9) in a South Atlantic Conference game Saturday evening at Shuford Memorial Gymnasium in Hickory, N.C. Josh Rudder (Graham, N.C.) led all scorers with 25 points to go along with seven assists as the Bears, the 2008-09 SAC Regular Season Champions, increased their winning streak to seven games. Elliott McDowell (Canton, N.C.) added 24 points as the Bears saw a 21-point second-half lead cut to one and had to hold on in the end for the victory. Mars Hills P.J. Gore (North Myrtle Beach, S.C.) finished with a team-high 20 points in the losing effort. Lenoir-Rhyne, which did not trail in the game, raced to a 55-34 advantage with 15:55 remaining on a lay-up by McDowell for its largest advantage of the contest. However, Mars Hill took advantage of 25 L-R turnovers and used a 35-15 run over a nine-and-half-minute stretch to cut the lead to 70-69 on a pair of free throws by Tony Blake (Canton, N.C.) at the 6:25 mark of the second half. Lenoir-Rhyne responded, though, with seven straight points started off by a three-pointer at the top of the key by Rudder for a 77-69 lead and Mars Hill couldnt get any closer than seven points the rest of the way. Jamarl Glen (District Heights, Md.) added 15 points for the Lions, who finished with 18 steals in the game.

SOUTH ATLANTIC CONFERENCE CODE FOR SPECTATOR CONDUCT

Brevard * Carson-Newman * Catawba * Lenoir-Rhyne
Lincoln Memorial * Mars Hill * Newberry * Tusculum * Wingate

Strong spectator support is a vital part of the experience of college competition; therefore, teams of the South Atlantic Conference shall be supported with enthusiasm and dedication. We expect good sportsmanship from players and coaches and they have the right to expect the same from spectators. Therefore, we urge South Atlantic Conference students, alumni and friends to cheer their teams to victory while upholding those ideals our colleges have set forth for its member institutions. Our spectators should be courteous, and judicious in choice of expression, and should exhibit good manners and kindness to all others. The scoreboard will reflect the quality of teams in competition; the kind of support given by the spectators will reveal the character of the South Atlantic Conference fans.
